Outcome: the one complaint received was in relation to the service they had received from the Valuation Section of Renfrewshire Valuation Joint Board in relation to an invalid council tax appeal.

The complaint was escalated to Stage 2 and was partially upheld. The complainant was dissatisfied with the service they had received from members of the valuation team and after investigation of the 17 points raised in the complaint, 1 point was upheld. The point was in relation to receiving unscheduled phone calls from staff. It was explained staff do normally ask if a person is able to take a call before proceeding with the discussion and if it is not suitable, they will arrange to telephone at a mutually convenient time. This part of the complaint was upheld and a reminder issued for staff and if required, training in relation to phone calls with stakeholders.
